WELCOME TO

THE BITTER TRUTH

"In the brave new world of cocktails, bitters have had their resurrection, and perhaps to a few, it may have felt like a long time coming. In fact, it is a miracle we have them at all. To the original cocktail habitués, the bitters were a necessary evil to drag them back from the yawning abyss of the morning and the accompanying pain: penance for the night before. To the sensibilities of the surrounding world, bitters were either medicine to be endured or quite simply a fraud and a sham to part a fool from his money. Snake oil was the term for it.

In life, against all odds, sometimes things just work out; it's the alchemical poetry of serendipity. That we should still – and again – have bitters, so roundly despised at the onset, is a testament to what else they offered. While perhaps they didn't cure diseases, and the morning drinkers would eventually topple despite them, the bitter principle did stimulate the stomach to produce gastric juices and revive appetite.

The cocktail, therefore intersected the nascent European trend, the aperitif. The rich and piquant spices accompanying the bitterness bequeathed a complexity on what otherwise would've been a simple Sling: Liquor, water, and sugar. When, shortly thereafter, vermouth was introduced to the world of mixed drinks, bitters, as it turned out, worked marvelously well with them. When ice became more readily available, bitters were also harmonious with fruit juices. The bitters added a blush of "warm" spices: cinnamon, nutmeg, mace, clove, and allspice.

THE TRAVELLING QUACK.

In the old days, bitters were falsely sold as medicine and later used as a cover-up to cure poor quality drinks... until they finally found their rightful place in the realm of fine cocktails.

“Bitters are the Oboe Soloist in the modern Cocktail Symphony”

They also could add the “cool” ones: mint, lemon, anise, saffrafras, and licorice. With the addition of liqueurs, the little cocktail rondo became a symphony and the bitters the oboe soloist.

And somewhere along the line, bitters sorted themselves into categories: first stomach bitters, then the first beverage bitters – which would span a range of aperitif and digestif bitters, and later aromatic and fruit bitters. Stoughton, Hostetter’s, and Boker’s (Bogart’s), the Amer, and Amari, the gentians, and absinthes were aperitif/digestif bitters. The intense and concentrated Angostura, Abbott’s, and Peychaud’s were celebrated aromatic bitters, and there were a plethora of orange and peach fruit bitters brands.

At one point, and for a long time, bitters were out of fashion. No longer outrageous, they simply gave way to simpler, faster, more streamlined tastes. Brands and flavors withered and died. Something wonderful was lost then, and it took years to gain enough perspective to see that.

But possibly the most gratifying story is that of devotee-turned-professionals, Stephan Berg and Alexander Hauck founding The Bitter Truth. They, from their personal interests, made bitters something of their lives’ work and galvanized the bitters movement with a series of bitters that famously included the commercial attempt to revive an extinct brand, Boker’s (Bogart’s).

For all they have done, for all they will do, Gentlemen here’s to you!”

THE BITTER TRUTH

OUR STORY

Originally, cocktail bitters were the ingredient that distinguished cocktails from other categories of beverages such as Toddies, Slings, Fizzes, Sours, or Punches. For decades, they were an essential component of good cocktail creations. The start of prohibition curtailed consumers' drinking habits, and cocktail bitters almost sank into oblivion. Only a few brands survived that period, but even after that, not all of them managed to reestablish themselves in the new market.

THE FOUNDING OF THE BITTER TRUTH

For some time now, there has been a resurgence in the popularity of cocktail bitters, and bitters are now again considered to be the spice rack for your bar. Since 2006, the German company The Bitter Truth has been doing its share to contribute to this development. It all started during a visit to the London Bar Show in June 2006. At that show, Munich bartenders Stephan Berg and Alexander Hauck gave birth to the idea of producing and distributing cocktail bitters, as they were hard to find in Germany or elsewhere if at all.

Both of them had already gained a considerable amount of experience in producing handmade cocktail bitters for the bars they were working at. Also, Stephan owned a large collection of current and historical bitters, some of which hadn't been produced for decades. Thus, he knew how the most well-known bitters of the world tasted and he was considered a specialist in this area.

Their criteria for the choice of flavors was mainly provided by old cocktail recipes that could no longer be mixed true to the original because one crucial ingredient had been missing – the correct bitters.

TRADITIONAL MANUFACTURING PROCESS

Only ingredients of the highest quality are used for The Bitter Truth products.

BOTANICAL EXTRACTION

The aromas and essences of herbs & spices are extracted through careful maceration/percolation in alcohol or water for up to 2 months.

After this process is finished, only water or alcohol is added to set the liquid to its final alcohol strength.

HARMONIZATION TIME

The product is then allowed to rest, and flavors can marry. In a final step, the product might get tinged, filtered, bottled, and labeled.

It is valuable time consuming to produce The Bitter Truth products.

Our traditional manufacturing process guarantees an unparalleled and superior taste.

TED HAIGH TALKS

THE BITTER TRUTH ABOUT BITTERS

In 2019 we surprised cocktail historian Ted Haigh with one of the first bottles of our reproduction of the very first Bitters ever mentioned. Before opening the precious lady leg bottle we talked about the history of bitters. Here is the knowledge he shared with us. In the last paragraph, you can read his reaction to our “Bogart’s Bitters”.

THE PURPOSE OF BITTERS

“Bitters are the aperitif taken down to its most basic. The kinds of bitters are aperitif bitters which are something you can drink a whole glass of or there are aromatic or there are fruit bitters. And they are only drinkable in small bits. But they add a whole range of depth to a mixed drink.

They give you a zing of spices a certain bright line of bitterness and then the bulk of the base of the liquor a little sweetening agent and maybe a little sourness and together they make a beverage that's so infinitely more complex than any of the above without it.”

THE ORIGIN OF BITTERS

"We have to go back to the history of alcohol when alcohol first began it made people feel better. And that made people think it was medicine. But then at a certain point, the most educated people in the world at that time were probably the monks. They would take the herbs and the spices and make things that would end up being like a digestif.

Now if you take a digestif and add a bitter constituent to it, it becomes mainly an aperitif bitter or a liqueur bitter. But then if you thin that out and just take the bitter component with the spices and less of the sweetening, you have something that is a miraculous additive. A secret weapon one might even say."

THE HONEST MEDICINE

"Originally bitters were considered medicinal. They weren't for adding into cocktails. They were to fix what ails you. Ironically ... the thing that was most honest about bitters, were cocktails! When cocktails happened, it was natural for bartenders to use whatever constituents were available to them. And part of that meant raiding the medicine cabinet. Bitters could be slightly medicinal in the cocktails, but they were also making the cocktails taste better. But bitters at that point became something of a culinary aid. And the medicine use receded."

THE VERY FIRST BITTERS

"The very first cocktail book is Jerry Thomas' book "How to mix drinks" or "The Bon-Vivant's Companion" it went under various titles. It just happened to be the very first cocktail book ever published. In those years cocktails were known to people through newspapers. Newspapers would publish bartenders who had created cocktails and they would give the recipes and so on. Jerry Thomas tended to aggregate all of that stuff in his first book. And how many cocktails were in his first book? TEN! That was all the official cocktails that there were. At that point, it was very noticeable when he mentioned bitters. It was published as "Bogart's Bitters". Now ... having done extensive research on this ... there are NO bottles that ever said "Bogart's Bitters" on them. Leading me to believe that whoever was transcribing some of that stuff from Jerry Thomas wrote "Bogart's" when what he said was „Boker's" and we know "Boker's" existed. We had original samples of it finally. I found a beautiful old Boker's bottle. So we believe that the first bitters to appear in cocktails were: Jerry Thomas' Decanter Bitters, there might be some early mention of Stoughton's Bitters and there were Boker's Bitters. And Boker's seems just about the oldest bitters existent that was meant for the cocktail."

TED TASTES BOGART'S BITTERS FOR THE FIRST TIME

"Boker's was made in the mid 19th century, and only one person I ever knew was able to obtain a bottle of Boker's that still had stuff in there. Everything was so integrated. It's complex. You couldn't quite tell what was in there. But what was in there tasted good.

We are proud to announce: Bogart's Bitters are back!

Ohh, wow. This is not a stock bottle! It's really, truly fabulous. You could not have done better. Wow, it's amazing, and it is appropriately bitter too. As I was trying to decipher the stuff I had, I noted a resinous to it. And I get it right in this. It's like I tasted a hundred-year-old bottle before, and now I'm tasting a fresh bottle. And just all of the herbs together in such a way that you can't tell what they are separate. And I expect that kind of complexity. It works in different drinks in different ways because of the flavor. But it's got its own signature character. Everything I asked about classic bitters is exhibited in this. It genuinely is. I don't think we can get any closer to the original than this."

THE BITTER TRUTH COCKTAIL BITTERS

The Bitter Truth bitters were specifically designed for recreating classic drinks made true to the original recipe or for experimentation with modern cocktail creations. Our bitters are made the traditional way using only the best quality natural ingredients. The Bitter Truth bitters have received multiple awards and will continue to innovate the bar world.

A unique addition to the bitters range is the recreation of the legendary Bogart's Bitters.

THE RETURN OF A LEGEND

BOGART'S BITTERS

"Bogart's Bitters can arguably be said to have started the cocktail movement as it was the first-ever mentioned bitters in the very first cocktail book published in 1862, written by the most famous bartender of those days, Jerry Thomas – a name, synonymous with the first golden age of the cocktail."

Jamie Boudreau in conversation with Stephan Berg

Although no bottles of the Jerry Thomas era ever surfaced, the common belief is that Bogart's was a kind of misspelling of Boker's Bitters at that time. Still, the impact on the development of the cocktail is without question.

Before other bitters appeared in cocktail recipes around the world, there was Bogart's/Boker's. A beautifully balanced and versatile cocktail bitter, it was even called for by name in the first Martini recipe, printed in 1888, where one was instructed to use "genuine" Bogart's/Boker's, indicating that this most popular bitters had weak imitations floating around ... And this makes sense, for if one actually tasted one of the very few remaining bottles of original Bogart's/Boker's bitters, they would discover that this magnificent bitter is not a cardamom bomb, but rather a beautiful mix of dark spice and chocolatey coffee, that can only be achieved by using a very expensive herb, an ingredient that others use sparingly due to cost, but also to the detriment of the final product.

The Bitter Truth has spent much time in investigating the subject over the last 10 years and is in the possession of a super rare original bottle – one of the only known bottles to have survived with genuine remaining contents, bottled around 1900.

Originally sold in iconic “lady leg” bottles made of brown glass, these bottles were defunct for about a century and have now been reproduced for this special edition.

The same goes for the labels, which have been redesigned from this surviving bottle. The formula has been analyzed, interpreted and changes in flavor profile, due to age, were subtracted and the liquid formulated in the way it authentically resembles Jerry Thomas’ favorite bitters of more than a century ago.”

BOGART'S BITTERS

A 19TH-CENTURY STYLE REPLICA BITTERS

Once praised by 19th-century bartenders Jerry Thomas & Harry Johnson for their genuine quality, these bitters were the only bitters called for by name in the world's first known book about cocktails "How to Mix Drinks" published in 1862 with a presumed manuscript error (hence Bogart's instead of Boker's Bitters). They were also part of the first known recipe for a Martini Cocktail in the "New and Improved Bartender's Manual" published in 1888.

Unfortunately with the turn of the century, the Food & Drugs Act of 1906, and eventually Prohibition in 1920, times were taking a toll on the former 'King of Bitters' and the brand vanished. Up until 2007, the common belief was that "no living person has ever tried these bitters".

After extensive research on old bitters from the early days of bartending, Boker's Bitters emerged as the holy grail of bitters. Luck was with the founders of The Bitter Truth when a fully intact bottle with label and contents in an online auction platform presented itself as a once in a lifetime opportunity. With the auction successfully closed, a rare bottle of Boker's Bitters was waiting to be revived in a painstaking reverse engineering process lasting for more than 10 years.

AROMATIC BITTERS

THE CLASSIC AROMATIC BITTERS

Aromatic bitters are the most classic of all bitters going back to the late 18th-century. They are by far the most widely used bitters since the early days of bartending and play a significant role in the history of cocktails. The Old Fashioned or the Manhattan Cocktail wouldn't have been the same without a few dashes of aromatic bitters.

The Bitter Truth Aromatic Bitters are unsurpassed in the complexity of flavor with spices such as cinnamon, cardamom, and anise permeate prominently. The aroma is full of clove and heady with gingerbread combined with the more subtle tutti-frutti notes.

As authentic as a brown leather chesterfield, The Bitter Truth Aromatic Bitters will add a nice kick to your punch. You can mix this little pugilist in with any wood aged spirit, adding structure and complexity to cocktails.

TASTING NOTES

Bitter and tangy to the taste. Reminiscent of cinnamon, cardamom, anise, and cloves, the aroma is reminding of gingerbread.

Your aromatic bitters I have taken to affectionately calling "Dr. Berg's Sassafras Bitters". I don't know if they actually contain sassafras, but they do taste as if they do. And again I applaud you for giving them a flavor no other aromatic bitters have. In a word, they are complex and excellent. I'd like more, please!

CHOCOLATE BITTERS

A MODERN STYLE OF AROMATIC BITTERS

Tall, dark and yes, somewhat handsome, most definitely rich and original: New bitters for a new era of cocktails!

The Bitter Truth Chocolate Bitters blur the lines between old world bitters and new world flavors. Deep chocolate notes are supported by classic bitter flavors and accented with a hint of spice. Cocoa butter and dark chocolate seduce the nose. Hints of vanilla, cinnamon, and bitter tones of gentian and wormwood are elicited on the palate.

The Bitter Truth Chocolate Bitters play exceptionally well with sweet vermouths and all kinds of aged spirits like whiskey, rum, tequila, and brandy. Add a dash to a Manhattan or Negroni to start exploring its complex flavor or use in a Tequila Old Fashioned to bring forward the spirit's vegetal attributes.

CREOLE BITTERS

A KITCHEN SPICE TYPE OF AROMATIC BITTERS

Creole equals flavorful, and these bitters are as unique as the culture it encapsulates. These bitters smell like a kitchen in the French Quarter.

The Bitter Truth Creole Bitters are reminiscent of a style of bitters dating back to an era before cocktails even existed. Back then, bitters were made by doctors and apothecaries, primarily for the use in liquid tonics and then eventually as an ingredient in alcoholic beverages.

The Bitter Truth Creole Bitters reflect the Creole way of life with all its beautiful complexity and spiciness. With the first taste, cayenne and pink peppercorns emerge, supported by anise, big red cinnamon, dusky caraway, and fennel seed. Fruit scents of dried apricots, cherries, and cranberries are mingling with the strong flavors of anise, smoked paprika, and hints of smoldering pine wood.

The vintage metallic label is hiding a fiery anise, cherry red-colored liquid. Try it in your favorite Manhattan, Old Fashioned, French 75, or for that matter, any drink that could do with perking up. Put on a brass band march and get your feet moving!

JERRY THOMAS BITTERS

A 19TH-CENTURY STYLE AROMATIC BITTERS

The Bitter Truth Jerry Thomas' Own Decanter Bitters is based on a recipe by "Professor" Jerry Thomas (1830-1885), who is considered the most important bartender of the 19th-century.

Although we are not sure if he would know what cider candies smell like since we don't know if they existed in the 1860s. He might recognize, however, crystallized ginger and the oils of fresh tangerine and almonds seeping through. We're sure he'd have known that it tastes of dried fruit with a finish of orange peel and a light sprinkling of Angostura bark. Of course, the original recipe was not slavishly reproduced, but its formula was improved to comply with today's legal requirements and discerning taste demands.

This homage is as characterful as its namesake was, so join in, get experimental and doff your hat to the man who brought us the first-ever published cocktail book: Jerry Thomas, formerly the principal bartender at the Metropolitan Hotel, New York, and the Planters House, St. Louis.

PRODUCT INFORMATION: 30 % Alcohol by Volume (60 Proof)

TASTING NOTES

Very fruity and very bitter. Citrus and dried fruit aromas unite with the spicy and bitter flavors of cloves, Angostura bark, and cinnamon.

The Jerry Thomas bottling is simply divine. When used in a Manhattan, it makes the cocktail jump all over your mouth yelling, "I'm over here now", then, "I moved over to this cheek", then "Catch me if you can". It's a complex little potion.

BLACK CHERRY BITTERS

A TRIBUTE TO A FAMOUS 19TH-CENTURY AROMATIC BITTERS

Inspired by the flavor profile of a famous, and long time defunct bitters brand of Baltimore, MD, The Bitter Truth pay once again tribute to those who came before them and who played a significant role in the first golden age of the cocktail.

The Bitter Truth Black Cherry Bitters surprise with complex notes of root beer, followed by a wave of intense and lush morello cherries and balanced notes of licorice, gentian, and other aromatic ingredients that make it a true bitters to crown a cocktail.

All ingredients are selected with judicious care, and compounded properly. Just as beauty is an impossibility without a sparkle to the eye, so is a cocktail incomplete unless the right bitters within its depths have been selected with care. The purposes of The Bitter Truth Black Cherry Bitters are without limits and they are the little something to the cocktail that causes jovial folk to smack their lips and to order some more.

Murray Stenson – bartender, Seattle/USA

GRAPEFRUIT BITTERS

A COMPLEX BITTERS FOR CITRUS-HEAVY DRINKS

The Bitter Truth Grapefruit Bitters do not fail in representing this oversized but under-used citrus fruit. With an instantaneous boost of the zingy breakfast fruit on the first sniff, you'll get both the bitter oils but also the classic sharp tang on the tongue, followed by complex vegetal tones and a dry hop finish.

The Bitter Truth Grapefruit Bitters is reminding of the summers outdoors. Delicate to the nose, these bitters can stand up to aggressive drinks.

Grapefruit meets with hops to create a fresh, bright citrus note and makes for a nice addition in fizzy and fruity drinks.

These grapefruit bitters are best friends to gin, vodka, blanco tequila, and light rum and are a wonderful ingredient for drinks that may otherwise taste excessively sweet. Give a modern twist to a classic Gin & Tonic, add a few dashes to a Daiquiri or Margarita or add a new layer of complexity to cocktails that traditionally didn't include bitters.

LEMON BITTERS

A FRESH AND SPICY CITRUS BITTERS

The Bitter Truth Lemon Bitters were the first lemon bitters to be offered commercially, and they add the liveliness and freshness of lemons to every cocktail.

The Bitter Truth Lemon Bitters has a decadent aroma of hot lemon tea with honey. Fresh, fruity, and dense with spice, this little blonde has sherbet flavors mingling with coriander seed and a light touch of toasted cardamom. The pithy lemon brings out the charm in light or sharp mixed drinks and slips deliciously into gin, vodka, white rum, or Blanco tequila.

The Bitter Truth Lemon Bitters are primarily suited for drinks that are based on clear spirits but will comfortably blend with many other spirits and liqueurs. Try with anything from a Cobbler to a Kamikaze.

ORANGE BITTERS

THE CLASSIC ORANGE BITTERS

Orange bitters were the natural successor of aromatic bitters when new distillation methods led to a lighter type of spirit. The first orange bitters were released in the 1880s, a time when many classic cocktails such as the Martinez and Manhattan were created. Today they are still the most versatile bitters and essential for the preparation of a Dry Martini Cocktail.

The Bitter Truth Orange Bitters are a combination of sweet and bitter orange peel, several herbs and spices macerated in alcohol.

A traditional marmalade scent sets off act one of The Bitter Truth Orange Bitters on the nose. This is followed by delicate notes of spices like sweet cinnamon and nutmeg. At first taste, cardamom and caraway make an entrance and then bow out with true orange peel oil. The Bitter Truth Orange Bitters supports the character of the traditional Dry Martini Cocktail and pairs well with any other type of spirit or liqueur.

PEACH BITTERS

A CLASSIC STYLE OF PEACH BITTERS

Peach Bitters were a classic style of bitters popular in the 19th-century during the first golden age of the cocktail but became defunct when more streamline tastes were in fashion. Although peach bitters never reached the popularity of orange bitters, they were one of the wider used bitters in classic cocktails.

The Bitter Truth Peach Bitters are a contemporary interpretation of this classic style of bitters and are made from natural ingredients. They are fresh and fruity with intense, candied peach notes, backed by a seducing hint of almonds.

The Bitter Truth Peach Bitters work especially well with aged spirits such as cognac and bourbon whiskey. A Mint Julep will be lifted to new heights. The combination of fresh peach and subtle spice notes add an exquisite fruitiness and complexity to cocktails and long drinks.

PRODUCT INFORMATION: 39 % Alcohol by Volume (78 Proof)

TASTING NOTES

A natural aroma of fresh peaches dominates while it is completed by fresh citrus, hints of almonds, and unobtrusive spice flavors. On the finish it tails off with a herbaceous, nutty note, leaving more fizzy peach to linger.

The Bitter Truth quickly earned their place behind my bar, but also in my travel bag. And the reason is that in every flavor you pick you'll find a bitter truth of originality, complexity, and the perfect addition for every cocktail.

CELERY BITTERS

THE ORIGINAL SAVORY BITTERS

A lost ingredient. Extinct for decades. Now revived to please the most discriminating palates. The Bitter Truth Celery Bitters were the first celery bitters commercially available in decades and have won 2010 “Best New Cocktail Ingredient” at Tales of The Cocktail, New Orleans.

This cocktail ingredient, which had already existed in the 19th-century, enriches cocktails with unusual savory flavors. The Bitter Truth Celery Bitters have a rich bouquet of white grapes, Sencha tea, lemongrass, celery leaf, and fresh ginger root. It dances artistically on the tongue as well, adding coriander seed, fresh celery, and chicory to the foray.

These bitters are ideal for traditional corpse-reviver cocktails such as the Bloody Mary, Red Snapper, Bullshot, Prairie Oyster, and all-time classics like the Dry Martini Cocktail and Gin & Tonic. They are essential with grassy spirits too! Try a good measure in a Ti Punch for something to make the neighbors envious.

PRODUCT INFORMATION: 44 % Alcohol by Volume (88 Proof)

THE BITTER TRUTH

Our journey for extraordinary flavors goes beyond the lands of fascinating bitterness. Some fruits of our quest are sweet and delicate. Some are born out of nostalgia, and others peak into the future.

APRICOT LIQUEUR

A FRESH AND DELICATE FRUIT LIQUEUR

The Bitter Truth Apricot Liqueur combines the juice of sun-ripened apricots with an apricot schnapps that was distilled from the same fruit and just the right amount of sugar.

Imagine fresh, plump, dewy, yellow-skinned apricots. This apricot liqueur has a sweet lightness from the juice and a smidgen of almond on the nose. While on the palate, a creamy dried apricot flavor cuts in first, interrupted by the caramel biscotti mid-palate and rounding off with hot stewed apricots once more.

The distinctive fruitiness and reduced sugar content of The Bitter Truth Apricot Liqueur are captivating. It is expressive and indispensable in many classic and modern cocktail recipes. Tantalize your taste buds and mix it with wine or champagne, in a cocktail or over ice, and it'll be just what the doctor ordered.

TASTING NOTES

Sweet and fruity. The aroma of ripe apricots is dominant. In the background, a hint of almond from the apricot pit is noticeable.

The Bitter Truth has won over hordes of bartenders and cocktail fanatics with their excellent bitters and liqueurs, and the company's fruit liqueurs seem to be on the same path.

The Bitter Truth Elderflower Liqueur twinkles in the glass, like starlight on hay bales, while the fresh flowered scent tickles the nose, sending you straight back to summer days romping about in the English countryside.

While elderflower blossom is your first kiss on the tongue, fruit notes like quince and white grape support the fête of light herbs and spices that slide in and mix with honey sweetness to make this a complex drink worthy of a country squire's picnic.

The Bitter Truth Elderflower Liqueur combines the characteristics of a spiced aperitif wine and a natural floral liqueur. Enjoy it chilled on ice as an aperitif, with wine or champagne, and of course, in numerous cocktails and long drinks.

GOLDEN FALERNUM

A FLAVORFUL RUM-BASED SPICE LIQUEUR

The coconut doesn't grow on a pumpkin vine, and The Bitter Truth Golden Falernum Liqueur does not forget it is a rum liqueur. This falernum is gold in color, taste, and texture, but never one-note. It is a calypso of flavor!

On the nose, fresh lime, seashell, and ginger with just a hint of Christmas. The taste carnivals from fresh ginger to vanilla and almond, surfing towards an atomic fireball. Allspice giving into a splash of lime and a delicate hint of Bajan sweet pepper sauce-like heat. With breadth that feels like a two week holiday, this falernum can perk up any aged spirit and instantly turn it into a drink worthy of some elaborate tropical adornment beyond the obligatory paper umbrella.

With an ABV of 18%, this falernum has a very distinctive feature among its category. It can be sipped neat or on ice, but it is a great companion for aged spirits like whiskey, rum, and brandy. And of course, it's an indispensable ingredient in numerous Tiki drinks.

LIQUEURS

TASTING NOTES

This rum-based liqueur is rich and complex in flavor. Nose: Spicy ginger with clove and a hint of vanilla. Taste: A more subtle ginger, followed by almond and vanilla. An allspice tingle on the tongue develops into a long finish with a zest of lime.

We say to our regulars: Save the night, support nice bars. We say to ourselves: Save the night, support The Bitter Truth.

VIOLET LIQUEUR

AN AUTHENTIC FLORAL LIQUEUR

With violet color reminiscent of a full moon reflected on a river in the twilight, The Bitter Truth Violet Liqueur humbly honors its name. Its deep purple romantic haze forecasts the unique flavor of this fragile flower.

Like poetry, aromas whisper sexy sweet nothings of subtle perfume onto your breath and finish with a dusting of icing sugar. A natural seducer, whose intense southern French flavor is both sensitive and balanced enough to elevate your Aviation to the heavens.

The Bitter Truth Violet Liqueur is made from the blossoms and roots of violets added to the finest neutral spirit. This violet liqueur impressively captures the delicate and elegant flavors of this fragile flower, and classic cocktails like the Aviation, the Blue Moon, and the Violet Fizz can now be made true to the original recipe.

PINK GIN

THE ORIGINAL PINK GIN INFUSED WITH BITTERS

The tradition of blending gin and bitters was first established by members of the Royal Navy to cure seasickness, and Pink Gin started life as a seafarers breakfast, drunk to rally a man against the wiles of the ocean.

The Bitter Truth Pink Gin is a delicious blend of traditionally crafted gin and a blend of bitters. This mix is not just a common gin with a fake tan; it's a sophisticated metrosexual in a salmon jumper.

It begins with a Mediterranean bouquet on the nose, with aromatic juniper, fresh lemons, and warm spices. Wonderfully gentle in the mouth, juniper berries are still at the helm, but these notes are supported by a crew of fresh spice flavors like licorice, caraway, and fennel, which cruise to a smooth whirlpool finish.

The Bitter Truth Pink Gin was created to please the taste of modern gin drinkers with a soft and gentle mouthfeel and fine complex flavors. It is best used on its own, as a Gin & Tonic, in your favorite Martini Cocktail or in any other gin-based cocktail.

PRODUCT INFORMATION: 40 % Alcohol by Volume (80 Proof)

HELPFUL HINTS FOR THE MIXING HOST

The proper mixing of cocktails & drinks is not a matter of luck. Like any other worthwhile achievement, it takes a little effort and preparation.

1. Temperature is everything ... use flawless ice!
2. Chill cocktail glasses before serving.
3. Pretty glassware pleases the eye.
4. Don't guess about the measurements ... use a measuring cup/jigger.
5. Always use the best ingredients you can afford.
6. Use fresh juices if possible – you'll taste the difference!
7. When the recipe says shake, shake well! ... when it says to stir, stir! Shaking makes a cloudy drink, stirring makes a clear one ... but never shake a fizzy drink!
8. Don't fill your cocktail glass to the brim.
9. If a peel or zest is required, only use fresh organic fruits.
10. You can make your own “sugar/simple syrup” (2 parts sugar dissolved in 1 part water). Keep it in the fridge!

SMALL DASH – BIG EFFECT

Bitters are the cornerstone of classic cocktail making, and many drinks offer more than one option for bitters. Just by changing the type of bitters, you can add an aromatic, fruity, or even savory touch to your favorite drink. With all the delicious varieties available, each will give a slightly different tone to a cocktail.

Discover the magical influence a few dashes of bitters will have on your cocktail!
